

16 November 1945

I, F.E. Carneiro, make this statement of my own free will.

I saw Juan Tria in Manila in June 1944 on the street and the Avenue Hotel. He said he was there on business and was employed by some company.

In January 1945 I saw him at Clark Field and he showed me a contract from some company appointing him Shanghai agent.

He left with us by plane.

In Shanghai I knew him as a broker — once he offered me a consignment of alcohol.
